THE TERRITORY OF LINCOLN.

A bill has been reported by the Senate Committee on Territories favoring the organization of a new Territory to be called Lincoln. It embraces all the Black Hills country, and it is said now contains a sufficient number of inhabitants to justify the passage of the bill. Senator Chaffee, of Colorado, Chairman of the Committee, made an interesting report in recommending the adoption of the bill. It seems that in 1875 the Black Hills country was a howling wilderness. The present population is placed at from 15,000 to 20,000, and of that number at least three-fourths settled in the country during the past year. It is now claimed for the country that it embraces a voting population fully as large as Montana, and much larger than Wyoming, Idaho or Arizona. In 1876 the Indians ceded to the United States all their right to the territory.

The Senate Committee have furnished some interesting statistics regarding the production of gold in the Black Hills during the past two years. In 1876 there was about two millions of gold taken from the placer mines, and in 1877, the estimate production is put at five or six million dollars. Within the past year forty-five gold quartz mills with a capacity of 820 stamps, have been created, and six other mills with 495 stamps, are in process of erection. Those who are competent to judge say that at least ten million dollars of gold will be produced in the Hill country in 1878. The Committee seem pretty enthusiastic over the prospects in the Black Hills, and probably give the condition of things there a brighter coloring than is fully warranted. They talk of churches, school houses, mills, factories, banks, stores, hotels, thrifty towns, and so on, springing up all over the country. They also give a glowing account of the condition of civilization, all of which should be read with considerable allowance by those who have an attack of the gold fever.

An attempt has been made in the Legislature to fix the salary of the Assistant Attorney General at $2,000, and a strong effort was made to cut it down to $1,200. Yesterday in the Assembly, after some discussion and several amendments, the bill fixing it at $2,000 was ordered to a third reading. It seems to us that it was very undignified for the Assembly to consider a resolution requesting the Attorney General and his Assistant to devote their whole time to the duties of the office. Why not adopt one requesting all other State officers to do the same thing. There is as much common sense in one as in the other.

At last we have a President without a party. Yesterday Shoo-fly Cox and A. S. Hewitt made bitter attacks on the President and his civil service policy, and it is a lamentable fact that when they had exhausted their venom there was not a Republican in the House who cared enough for the President to raise his voice in his defence. Has it come to this that the President of the United States is without a friend in the House of Representatives? This must certainly be suggestive to Mr. Hayes.

It seems from the State Journal that Dr. J. W. Hoyt who has just been nominated for the Governorship of Wyoming Territory, was seeking a foreign appointment, and that his nomination as Governor was a surprise and a disappointment to him as well as to some of his political friends. We believe all the consulates have been filled, so that nothing was left for the Doctor but a territorial position.

This is pretty good: An office seeker wrote to General Butler asking his endorsement, and described himself as a patriot, not a politician. Butler returned the letter to the applicant, indorsed, "No patriot stands the slightest chance of getting an office now." The applicant sent the letter with Butler's endorsement to the White House, with the inquiry, "Are we drifting into anarchy?"

The State finally owns the Edgewood property—the Senate resolution accepting it having been concurred in by the Assembly. Governor Washburn is to be congratulated in his successful effort to give the property away. It is not yet known what the State will do with it. The donor reserves the right to suggest as to what purpose the property shall be put.

There will be only three Wisconsin exhibitors at the Paris Exposition, and these are Philip Best, of Milwaukee, who will exhibit beer; J. L. Case & Co., Racine, threshing machine; and A. P. Dickie, Racine, fanning mills. There are 500 American exhibitors, not including artists, and their places have been assigned.

The election in New Hampshire, yesterday, resulted in a Republican victory. Governor Prescott was re-elected, and a Republican majority in the Legislature is secured. Prescott's majority will be at least 2,000.

The appropriation for current expenses for the State Hospital for the insane, passed the Legislature to-day, the amount being $98,000, against $89,000 last year.

The Springfield Journal says that Bob Rogers cannot conscientiously carry a silver dollar in his pocket because it has the inscription, "In God we Trust."

Alex C. Botkin has been confirmed United States Marshal of Montana.

Success of the Republicans—They Elect the Governor and a Majority in Both Houses.

HANOVER, N. H., March 12.—The greatest excitement ever known in Hanover occurred over the election. Objections to ex-United States Senator James W. Patterson caused a bolt of a portion of the Republicans, who united with the Democrats for his defeat. Patterson was declared elected by one majority. A prominent Republican who counted the votes with the officials claimed a mistake of one in the first count, and demanded a recount. This was refused, and Patterson was declared elected.

CONCORD, N. H., March 12.—The vote of 159 towns and cities gives Prescott (Republican) 20,342; McKean (Democrat) 20,690, and scattering 325. Last year the same places gave Prescott 30,329, McKean 25,981, scattering 809. Republican net loss in these places, 1,930. It seems certain that Prescott is elected Governor, and that the Republicans carry the House and Senate, and Council. The Republicans claim Prescott elected by 2,000, and the Democrats concede him from 1,000 to 1,500 majority. The Republicans claim the House by not less than 50 majority, which will probably not be far from right. They also claim that they have carried eight out of twelve Senatorial Districts. Of the counties, the Republicans carry Rockingham, Strafford, Hillsborough, and Sullivan, and the Democrats Belknap, Carroll, Merrimack, Grafton, and Coos. Horace A. Brown, Republican, was elected Mayor of the city to-day.

Following is the vote of the principal cities and towns of New Hampshire for Governor:
 Concord—Prescott, 1,854; McKean, 1,423.
 Nashua—Prescott, 1,169; McKean, 1,323.
 Portsmouth—Prescott, 1,032; McKean, 972.
 Dover—Prescott, 1,138; McKean, 950.
 Keene—Prescott, 840; McKean, 561.

SHOO-FLY.

Sunset Cox Pitches into the Administration—The Feeling as Described in the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—From the proceedings in the House to-day it appears certain that the President has no defenders in that body. After the severe arraignment of the Civil Service policy by the Administration by Hewitt yesterday, it was thought that if the President had any friends in the House they would today assert themselves. It was humiliating for Republicans to have Democrats call attention to the fact that no Republican had made answer to the attack upon the Administration. Hale did make answer, but only to say that he did not "hanker" for such duty; did not take the floor for that purpose; and nobody else on the Republican side seemed to "hanker" to confront the Democrats as the President's defenders, so it can be set down that, as far as the President's Civil Service policy is concerned, there is no one in the House so poor as to do it reverence.

Sunset Cox, accepting the challenge that Hewitt had given yesterday in declaring that the President's title was impregnable, endeavored to make good his assertion of the other day that the occupant of the White House is a fraud. Cox arraigned both the President's title and his policy. The two wings of Democrats have thus spoken,—Hewitt representing the Conservatives, who do not wish to open the Pandora's box, and Cox the Impetuous, whose capital consists of turbulence, and whose political future depends upon their ability to inflame the masses by the demagogue's appeals.

Hale, if he did not defend the Administration, showed no consideration for the Democrats. He asserted that the object of the Democrats in their cheese-paring policy in the appropriations was to save money enough for gigantic jobs with which ex-Confederates assault the Treasury. He made a somewhat imperfect summary of the jobs presented by the Democrats, aggregating millions of dollars. Among these claims were the cotton tax relieving scheme, $60,000,000; Mississippi levees and Texas Pacific; repeal of the law making disloyalty a bar to claims, and manifold other schemes.

LEGISLATURE.

Senate Bills Concurred in by the Assembly.

One to Provide for the Representation of Cities in County Board of Supervisors.

A Commissioner to the International Prison Congress, without Salary.

The Substitute for the School Book Bill Adopted.

FROM MADISON.

Special despatch to the Janesville Gazette.
 MADISON, March 13.

SENATE.
 Senate bills were concurred in appropriating sixty-eight thousand dollars to the State Hospital for the Insane for current expenses of the ensuing year.

To provide for the representation of common councils of cities in county boards of supervisors.

Memorials to Congress for reduction of export price on wool.

Also for a graduated income tax.

SENATE.
 Bill passed providing the appointment of a commissioner, without salary, to represent Wisconsin at the International Prison Congress to be held in August, at Stockholm, Sweden.

A bill providing that license monies received by towns be placed in the general fund instead of the poor fund as now, was refused a third reading.

The school book question came up as the special order. The Committee on Education recommended the appointment of a commissioner of five to gather statistics and information during the summer and report to the next Legislature, the total expense of the commission not to exceed one thousand dollars, and the commission to consist of R. E. Davis, of Dane county; Geo. H. Paul, of Milwaukee; George S. Albee, of Winnebago; John R. Quimby, of Sauk; and Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. C. Whitford. The substitute was adopted and ordered to a third reading.

Death Rate in Various Occupations.

Nobody doubts that the occupation of an individual has much to do with his general health, and with his chances of death. Statistics prove that the death rate is lowest among scientists and professional men—not physicians; then follow Protestant clergymen, engineers, farmers and laborers; next carpenters, machinists, and workers in iron; then come schoolmasters, tobaccoists, physicians, and finally the clergy of the Roman Catholic church, among whom the mortality is much greater than among the Protestant clergy and the other professions named. Next we have druggists and butchers, then miners and glass manufacturers, plumbers and cooperages, railway employees and dock laborers, and last of all, carmen, cabmen, horse-keepers, and innkeepers, among whom the mortality is greatest, and much more than double that of the first mentioned occupation.

The deduction which may be drawn from these facts are very instructive and practically useful; they prove that the quiet pursuits of science tend to prolong life as well as well as outdoor labor provided it is not on railways or among ship-ping or horses; that to work in iron is more wholesome than to work in lead or copper, as might be expected while the confined labor of a schoolmaster is as injurious as the state of celibacy of the Roman Catholic priest; lastly, the innkeepers, being most exposed to the temptation of intemperance, have the least chance for a long life, as well as those with whom they habitually keep company—Manufacturer and Builder.

ARCHIVES.

Interesting Revelations Concerning the Confederate Archives.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Various interesting points in connection with the Confederate archives in possession of the War Department, and their relation to war claims, are developing. It seems there was a concerted effort last summer by Democratic Governors of Southern States, while the reconciliation fever was at its height, to secure the consent of the President and Secretary of War to the distribution of these archives among the several States recently in rebellion, but Secretary McCrary nipped this little scheme in the bud.

The Earnings—A Good Showing and Good Prospects for the Future.

MILWAUKEE, March 15.—The earnings of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company for the month of February are $668,353.24. For the corresponding month last year they were $403,882.44, an increase of $264,470.80. This is a good showing, when the terrible condition of the country roads is remembered. A large amount of produce yet remains to be marketed along the lines of this road in Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota.

EXPLOSION.

Sixteen Dead Bodies Taken out of the Pit, in which Forty Miners were at Work.

LONDON, March 13.—A terrible colliery explosion occurred in the Unity Brook pit, near Bolton, yesterday afternoon. The mouth of the pit was blocked about 6 o'clock, when the explorers succeeded in entering. At last accounts they had found sixteen corpses. About forty men were working in the pit at the time of the explosion, and it is certain all perished.

GREENBACKERS.

MADISON, Wis., March 13.—Some time ago the Greenback Club, of Milwaukee, resolved to support the Hon. George W. Cate, late member of Congress from the Eighth District, as their candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, but it is stated that this has now been abandoned, as they are perfectly satisfied with the nomination of Judge Orton, of this city, and will support him.

THE RUSSIANS.

Occupying the Strong-hold Around and near Constantinople.

LONDON, March 13.—A dispatch from Constantinople reports that the Russians have occupied Wukerekevi, half an hour's march from Budakere, on the Bosphorus. They also occupy a majority of the villages around Constantinople, and continue advancing toward the city.

BRIEFLETS.

—Better roads.
—The fire bell is mute.
—Freight business is livelier.
—Three hard looking tramps were run in last night.
—The quickest way to get a spring suit is to refuse to pay your debts.
—Colley's gang are getting out gravel from the pit to-day.
—Y. M. C. A. hold their regular meeting this evening in their room.
—The carpenters are kept busy, building barns. Put locks on the doors.
—The weather is threatening. Get out a warrant and put it under bonds.
—Charlie Felton is back again from a successful drumming trip on the road.
—Dr. R. B. Treat, of Chicago, is making his old Janesville friends a flying visit.
—Justice Balch is putting in the day at Mauston, and his shop is accordingly closed and appropriately labeled.
—For ways that are dark take an evening stroll through the Court House square, or up around the High School building.
—Early in the morning a fine array of slop-cuppers and water-carriers can be seen on the bridges. It's all right as long as they don't mess up the sidewalk.
—A father who swears he is afraid of his life, because of the threats made by his son, has taken out a warrant for the latter's arrest but the boy has skipped. It is expected he will be brought in within a few days.
—Healey, the walker, has concluded to let Janesville have the go-by, as he could not perfect satisfactory arrangements for an exhibition of his speed here. He has gone to Chicago where he will test his powers in a match.
—McKey & Bro. have just received their first installment of Spring millinery, comprising all the leading styles in ladies hats and frames and on Saturday will open a large invoice of French flowers and ornaments.
—The meeting of the Ladies Society, the Friday evening social and the art studies for this week, at the All Souls church are all postponed, owing to the bereavement caused by the death of Mrs. Burgess, an old and staunch friend of the church.
—Mr. H. Hendricks, formerly a pupil at the Institute for the Blind, has written his autobiography and is now in the hands of the printers. He is in the city canvassing for subscribers to the work, the price of which is $3. The work is said to be worthy of a liberal patronage.
—To-morrow evening the Spring Brook Temple of Honor, composed entirely of the attaches of Burr Robbins' circus, will be instituted at the lodge room of the Crystal Temple. The members of the latter are particularly requested to be on hand promptly at half past 7 o'clock. Representatives from Temples in adjacent towns are expected.
—The lecture of Rev. Jenk L. Jones before the Sons of Temperance last evening was not as well attended as the character of the entertainment warranted. His subject was unique, it being "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Like most of Mr. Jones' efforts it showed thought and was served up with sufficient spice to make it decidedly reliable.
—The city fathers will put on their good clothes to-morrow and skirish around among the school children by invitation of the Superintendent of Schools. If the visitors would drop in individually and without announcement, they would probably get a great deal better idea of the true workings of the schools. These formal inspections are a good deal of a farce.
—The boys of Engine Company No. 1 will now find it easy to keep things cleaned up. Mr. G. A. Libbey has put in one of his largest sized force-pumps, with hose attached, so that an abundance of water can be drawn with ease from the well under the floor, and the whole place can be swabbed, scrubbed, and scoured at pleasure. That's getting next door to Godliness.
—John Dummigan, of Bradford, was arrested and brought before Justice Phelps to-day on a charge made by his wife that while drunk he assaulted her, and failed to use her tenderly. The evidence was not deemed sufficiently strong to warrant the justice in afflicting any more severe penalty than to oblige him to listen to a sharp lecture on the benefits of water as a beverage, and a few touching remarks on the duties of a husband.
—The Hyers Sisters did not draw as large a crowd last night as the previous evening. The entertainment itself was however, an improvement even on the preceding one, though the programme was changed but little. These two entertainments have proven a rich treat for those who delight in music, and the troupe goes on their way attended by the well wishes of many who heard them here with delight.
—There is no need of circulating any further rumors about the small pox. The Gazette, true to its promise, has kept its readers posted as to the exact condition of things, and is now able to state that the only small-pox case which has been in the city for a long, long time, is entirely cured, and there are no indications of there being any more, as this one was the result of an exposure in Milwaukee. The tongues of busy gossips will needs find some new subject to wag about.
—Nels Richards has been held to the Circuit Court by Justice Patton in the sum of $350 to answer to the charge of burglary, he having been accused of breaking open a smoke house and stealing thencefrom. It was quite a query as to whether a little smoke house came under the list of buildings which the statute says can be burglarized, but the Justice finally concluded it could, though the defendant's lawyer claimed it was about like burglarizing a dry-goods box.
—The election of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department and his two assistants, is to be held next Monday evening in accordance with a call published elsewhere. Mr. R. P. Young, now First Assistant, is the most prominent candidate for the position of Chief, and as yet there is no developed opposition to him. For First Assistant Mr. G. A. Libbey and Mr. Wm. Cunningham are spoken of, and the chief trust will probably be on filling that position. For Second Assistant there are no candidates yet urged forward.

—Mr. Frank Barnett, who has been in Mr. Farnsworth's dry-goods store, and who has a small world of acquaintances and friends in the city, shakes the damp dust of the city from off his sandals to-morrow morning, and starts on a trip through Nebraska and Kansas to find some lively town in which to open up a dry-goods store. Barnett has had a goodly amount of business experience for a young man, and will doubtless meet with the same prosperity and success in his new undertaking, which has thus far marked his career.

DEATH OF MRS. BURGESS.

A Busy Life Closes Peacefully and Calmly.—One of the Pioneer Settlers Gone to Her Rest.—Her Life and Character.

There will be many hearts in this community saddened by the announcement that Mrs. Huldah A. Burgess, wife of Hon. James M. Burgess, died at her residence in this city about 5 o'clock last evening, after an illness of about a week. Mrs. Burgess was one of the oldest and most respected of the pioneer settlers, she having come here as early as 1844, moving with her husband from Yates county, N. Y., and having one son, Gage, who grew to manhood, spending most of his life in Janesville, and who died a few years ago. Her only other child is Mrs. Baker, wife of C. W. Baker, of the Post. Mrs. Burgess was at the time of her death, in the 63rd year of her age, and leaves behind her a life-record replete with acts of charity and kindness, which will remain in the memory of the many recipients of her acts and words, as long as their hearts beat. In the earlier years of the city's history she was hostess of the American house, the Stage house and the Ogdens house, and while occupying these positions was a host of admiring acquaintances and very many warm and true friends. Many a wandering, homeless one has had occasion to remember her, who never turned the stranger away cold or hungry. In social circles she occupied a prominent position, being of an active, generous nature, affable to all, and ever ready with a warm, sunny greeting, and yet never for a moment losing her womanly dignity. In all charitable movements she was among the foremost and most active workers. During the war she occupied the position of President of the Soldiers' Aid Society, and performed a work for the suffering sons of loyalty which will never be forgotten. In her religious belief she was of a liberal tint, and was active in church work. She belonged to the All Souls society, and in all of its organizations took a leading part. Her life was a busy one, and its aim ever seemed to be the helping and bettering of others. Her death bed is said to have been made fairly radiant by the peacefulness and even joy with which she greeted the great change, and her parting words were too sacredly touching to be thrown before the public in this hasty sketch.

There are many sympathizing friends to speak words of comfort to the bereaved husband and daughter, and to the family friends whom she has left to mourn her death. The funeral services will take place at All Souls church to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

OLD FROG.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 43 degrees above zero, and at 2 o'clock at 46 degrees above. Rain. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer indicated 10 and 35 degrees above.

BAD BANK BLUNDER.

A serious charge is laid at the door of Charles Lawrence, a farmer living a short distance from Happy Hollow. It is to the effect that he stepped into the bank of Cleghorn & Co., at Clinton, yesterday, and presented a check for $75, which the teller, a mere boy of about sixteen years, mistook for $750, and cashed accordingly. Lawrence went on his way rejoicing, and when the mistake was discovered denied that he had received any more than what the check called for—$75. At a late hour last night a warrant for his arrest was placed in the hands of officers, who started out on his trail to arrest him and bring him before the court to answer to the charge. At time of going to press the officers were still on the hunt without much success, as far as could be learned.

REV. MR. WALLACE RESIGNS.

The religious circles of the city will doubtless be surprised to learn that Rev. George Wallace, the popular pastor of the Trinity Episcopal church, last evening handed in his resignation, which will take effect May 1. Rev. Mr. Wallace has received a flattering call from a church in Waterloo, N. Y., and has decided to accept it. It is to be regretted that he should have concluded to change his field of labor. He has a fast hold on many Janesville friends, who will part with him with deep regret. As a pastor he is beloved, as a preacher, popular, and as a resident of the city, greatly respected and highly esteemed in social and literary circles. He has occupied the pastorate of Trinity church for about seven years.

THE COLLEGE JOURNAL.

The students of Milton College have organized a company for the publication of a college paper to be known as the College Journal. The initial number is now out. It is a clean-faced, bright-eyed youth, and cannot help becoming a favorite among those interested in that institution of learning. It contains a large amount of reading matter of general interest to all classes of society, and in addition gives an account of college gossip and tidings from alumni, which no friend or patron of Milton College can afford to lose. The new enterprise should be enthusiastically supported, as it is worthy, and the managers give good measure in return for the small sum asked for subscription. Messrs. Samuel Plantz, W. E. Hemphill and Mrs. Flieger are the editors, and Mr. Charles M. Morse is the business manager. Milton College has long felt the need of a good representation.

tative paper, and the need is now supplied and there is no doubt the new sheet will receive a liberal patronage. It is to be hoped so, at least, as it merits it.

CITY CHOW-CHOW.

The Council Transacts some Miscellaneous Business of Usual Importance.—A Number of Items of Interest to Tax-payers.—A Short and Business-like Meeting of the City Fathers.

The city council held a regular meeting last evening, the Mayor presiding and Ald. Church, Davies, Fitzgibbon, Lawrence, McKinney and Wilcox being present.

The reports of the Police Justice for January, Board of Education, for February, and Chief Engineer for the the past quarter were presented and placed on file.

Several illegal tax certificates were referred to the City Attorney.

A petition was presented from Mr. Wm. J. Marshall, asking for a theatrical license for the month for the Academy of Music. It seems that Marshall deems $200 per night a little too heavy a tax on light receipts, and hopes to be able to do a little better by getting a commutation ticket for thirty nights. His prayer was referred to the License Committee, for consideration, though, as one of the aldermen remarked, there is no apparent way in which the direct requirements of the regular tax can be granted.

The Treasurer's report for February was presented as approved by the Finance Committee and placed on file.

Further time was granted for the consideration of the Beale-Williams assessment tax.

Ald. McKinney introduced an order directing the Treasurer to deduct the penalty of 12 per cent on certain unpaid taxes, provided the same be settled within thirty days. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The pay rolls of the different fire companies were presented and referred to the Finance Committee. Hook and Ladder Company reported that Anton Brown and William Kelly had been elected members to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of P. A. Cunningham and Martin Garrity. By motion of Ald. Wilcox they were confirmed.

Ald. Lawrence called up the order of Ald. Blount at the last meeting concerning the excessive taxes of Mr. Eldridge in which a rebate of $249.17 was asked. The order was passed and the rebate granted as requested.

An invitation was presented from the School Superintendent, asking the aldermen to visit the schools in a body, to-day. The same was accepted, after the date had been changed by mutual consent to Thursday.

The case of Thos. Welch, a saloon keeper, was brought up. At the last meeting an order was passed instructing the City Attorney and Marshal to cite Welch before the Council, and have him bring forth the facts to show why his license should not be taken away. Ald. Lawrence moved that the matter be postponed till the next meeting. Ald. Fitzgibbon thought the Council had nothing to do with the matter. It belonged to the courts. It had been tried there, and Welch had been acquitted. Ald. Lawrence threw further light upon the subject by saying that though Welch was there in person, he had not been officially cited to appear, and the matter could not be pressed forward at present. A postponement was accordingly taken.

Ald. Lawrence, of the Finance Committee, reported in favor of sundry bills, among which was one of Dr. Robinson for attending the case of small-pox, $35. It appears from the Doctor's statement that the only case of this disease in the city had been cured, and there was little or no danger of any more cases arising from exposure by this case.

The application of P. G. Flannigan for a license to sell liquor at No. 32 East Milwaukee street, was granted.

Adjournment was then taken.

HELP IN ACQUIRING KNOWLEDGE.

In acquiring a knowledge of the English Language, and especially in learning the meaning of words, probably no other work, nor many other books altogether, can afford so much aid as Webster's Unabridged Dictionary with its 3000 Pictorial Illustrations, its precise and full definitions, its careful discriminations of synonymous words and its many valuable tables. It is, in itself, a whole library of the language. Let one family have a copy of this work, and use it faithfully, and another be without it,—the difference in the progress of the two families in getting knowledge will be very great.

CREATING NUISANCES.

This morning Patrick Kavanaugh, residing on the corner of Rock and Franklin streets, appeared before Justice Patton, to answer to a complaint sworn to by Henry M. Hart, to the effect that, Kavanaugh had a pig-pen, the filth and stench of which were detrimental to the comfort and health of his neighbors, a half-dozen of whom appeared and testified to the same effect. The Justice decided to adjourn it until Friday morning, Kavanaugh promising to remove the nuisance before that time, if weather permitted.

There are more than one such nuisance within the city limits, and it is to be hoped that prompt measures will be taken to suppress them before the warm weather comes and breeds disease, as it surely will unless prompt preventives are enforced. For instance, the other day a team was seen stuck in the filth of a barnyard in the Fourth ward, the manure and rubbish being several feet deep. In almost every neighborhood a grand cleaning up of yards and alleys is needed. Janesville is not as bad as many cities, to be sure, and yet this is no excuse for uncleanness or carelessness. The health of the city demands a general renovation.

MILTON JUNCTION.

The Welcome Division of the Sons of Temperance held their literary session at advertised on Wednesday evening, of last week. There was some over one hundred persons present, including members of the Division and invited guests. The literary exercises were held in their customary place of meeting, the Old Fellows' Chapel, and were very interesting. The paper, The Temperance Banner, presented by Miss Mattie Nelson, was well prepared, and read in a clear, pleasant and forcible style, that drew encomiums from all. The singing was rendered by a well selected choir, accompanied on the organ by Miss Delano Rogers. After the exercises the company repaired to Morgan hall, where decked fingers had arranged long tables loaded with good things. An oyster supper was served up in good shape.

—P. Hughes loaded a car with household goods, horses, wagon and farm tools for Minnesota, on Monday. His wife and three of his sons went with him to occupy a farm lately bought near Austin.

—A most despatch attempt to fire the business portion of this town was attempted on Tuesday night, of last week, by placing a bundle of lighted pine splinters at the rear end of the livery barn occupied by F. C. Buten, for livery purposes, and containing at the time nine horses, a cow, carriages, G. H. Buten's wholesale cotton wagon, feed, etc., on all of which there was no insurance. The wind was in the south, and had the attempt to fire succeeded, the entire business portion of Merchants Row, north of the post office, would have been destroyed. The failure is no doubt due to the fact that the bundle was not sufficiently lighted, and under way, so that when laid down under the edge of the barn, with burning ends up considerably higher than the but ends they went out before igniting the mass. The air being damp and the straw around it wet, no doubt assisted in preventing a conflagration that fairly makes one flesh crawl to think of.

—Will and James Craig, sons of Thomas Craig, left with teams on Monday morning, for Austin, Minnesota, where they have bought farms which they go thither to occupy.

—Alanson Coon, Esq., was considerably bruised some days since by falling from a load of hay, caused by a broken grech.

He is about town but uses a cane.

—Mrs. Spaulding is fixing up the fences around her buildings in town and giving her building on Merchants' Row a new coat of paint.

The funeral of Mrs. E. P. Frink on Thursday last was held at the Seventh Day Baptist church. The house was filled to overflowing. Sermon by Elder Wardner.

—The Rev. Mr. Brunt received a donation visit from his friends at the M. E. church. The bad roads made the attendance light, but those present made the most of the occasion which was helped out wonderfully by a fine picnic supper, which received ample justice. Considering everything the receipts were fair.

SNOPIERE.

—Farmers were plowing and sowing wheat last week. There will be more wheat sown this year than there has been for years in this town.

—Mr. A. W. Lewis and Mr. Motts loaded three car loads in Beloit with farming utensils, household goods and ten horses. They left last Monday for Kansas. The families went Tuesday.

—Mr. & Mrs. J. H. Poole invited their friends to spend the evening with them in their new house last Friday, and the verdict of the large assembly that attended was that Mr. and Mrs. Poole know how to make their friends happy on such an occasion.

—Mr. E. J. Carpenter sent new butter to Chicago last week that sold for thirty-three cents a pound. It inspected steam-ry.

—Many farmers are sowing clover seed this spring. Perhaps the low price of seed may be a benefit to the country at large.

—Cows are about the only stock that sell for fair prices at auction sales that have been held lately. All other property has sold low.

—Some appeared to have confidence enough on the 9th day of March to plant potatoes. Last year on that day the thermometer indicated two degrees below zero and on the 10th, ten degrees below.

—The pigeon men have been on the alert lately to capture those that are making their appearance. Some few dozens have been the result by the boss catchers.

—The champion cheese manufacturer, Mr. Chauncey Ross, we are informed, will soon open his factory for business.

CITY NOTICES.

A Fragrant Breath and Peppy Teeth.

Are easily attained, and those who fail to avail themselves of the means, should not complain when accused of gross neglect. The Borodent will speedily eradicate the cause of a foul breath, beautifying and preserving the teeth to the oldest age.

Spalding's Glue is useful in every house.

—Don't fail to attend the great auction sale of fine oil chromes, in Myers house block, commencing Thursday, March 14th, at 2 and 7 o'clock p. m.
